Selling of women

1423. SHRI H.K. JAVARE GOWDA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that in Madhya Pradesh, the 'Bhil Tribe of Gowdri Village are selling women in public auction as reported in The Week' magazine, dated 26th January, 2003;

(b) if so, the number of women sold, and the details of persons involved in the case and the persons arrested; and

(c) the steps proposed to be taken to prevent such heinous acts in future?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) and (b) As per available information, about 30/35 women who had earlier married outside the Bhil community or were not residing with their husbands were forcibly brought to the Panchayat by the Bhil youths and were sold in an auction.

Seven cases were registered in Police Station, Pandhana and 23 persons including the Panchayat office bearers were arrested. 17 of them were later released on bail and the remaining 6 are still in judicial custody.

(c) 'Police' and 'Public Order' are State subjects under the Constitution of India. However the Government of India is committed to the welfare and development of its people particularly the vulnerable section of society which include the Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes. The Ministry of Home Affairs has been advising the State Governments from time to time to give more focussed attention to improve the administration of the criminal justice system and to take adequate and effective deterrent, punitive and preventive measures.
